Chapter 1 by GABBY LUCAS

On the night of October 31st, you see children running around getting candy from people because that is what they always do.

Parents look around because something was different this night because it was chillier than normal. Sounds could be heard but not seen by the human eyes.

The wind starts too pick up and the dogs start to howl. Glowing red eyes watch the unsuspecting humans on the night of Samhain.

One child sees the eyes and begins to walk towards those ruby gem eyes. She sees a dog and she reaches towards it then...
